Speedcrete is a dealer of concrete equipment and supplies serving the needs of professional concrete contractors throughout England and the U.K. Speedcrete stocks, sells, services, and rents the full line of Allen Concrete Equipment which has made them a perennial top performer among Allen International Dealers.

Speedcrete was established in 1982 as a concrete pumping company following the collapse of the concrete pump innovators Thompson Concrete Pumps. Since the beginning, Speedcrete has been responsible for launching numerous new & innovative ideas to the concrete market in England and are continuing to push the envelope with new technologies for the concrete contractor.
