JEFF MURPHY // INSIDE SALES

Jeff Murphy is one of Allen's newest hires. He joined the team in early October. Having heard many positive things from around the community, when the opportunity presented itself he joined team Allen.

As part of our inside sales team, Jeff helps support our customers before and during the sale, and he also assists our outside sales team. Each day comes with new challenges and he is up to the task!

When asked what he liked most about Allen he said, "My co-workers have been great! They have been incredibly supportive of me coming into an environment that is very foreign."

In his spare time, Jeff enjoys spending time with his wife and children, as well as hunting, fishing and football.

Bet You Didn't Know: Jeff has a Boston terrier named buster.
