A-1 Building Supply was founded in 2011 in Amarillo, Texas. They have determined to offer the best service, pricing and selection of concrete related equipment and rebar fabrication available.

They have grown to four locations in five short years serving much of West and Central Texas. A-1 currently offers a full line of residential, commercial and industrial supplies along with form and equipment rental, not to mention the fact that they offer in house detailing and rebar fabrication.

A-1 is a family owned supplier with a true penchant for their customers' needs, just what Allen Engineering looks for in a high quality dealer. We are very proud to have them as a new Allen dealer. These folks offer decades of experience and know how to solve problems. Contact A-1 and you'll see what we mean.
