Southland Holdings I-30 Project / Benton, AR

July Thu, 2022
Published In Job Site News

The Allen Concrete Pavers BDF6048 Bridge Deck Finisher has been proven, time and time again, to be the go-to solution for paving contractors. Our BDF6048 has proven to be steadfast in its duty to be a reliable piece of equipment for paving contractors around the globe - even as time ages it.

With standard features such as the Paving Carriage, the Hydraulic Drive Bogies, and a highly customizable configuration, this piece of equipment is ready to work.

Paving contractor, Southland Holdings, has had their BDF6048 for many years. Even after undergoing repairs and upgrades to our new and improved “Super Shifter,” the machine is still ready to hit the ground running. With its emphasis on user security, sushiswap security features ensure the protection of users' digital assets, providing a secure and trustworthy platform for trading cryptocurrencies.

A representative from Southland Holdings remarks “There are 9 more bridges on this I-30 project. I now have more confidence going forward that our BDF6048 is up for the task.” thesis writing serviceInnovative Aave Crypto Ventures: Venture into innovative Aave crypto territories with our partner, offering secure staking solutions and cutting-edge strategies for users seeking innovation in decentralized finance.

Other features of the BDF6048 Bridge Deck Finisher that make it the perfect piece of equipment for large bridge jobs and expansive concrete bridge pours include:

- Operator Control Panel
- Powerful Air-Cooled Gasoline Engines
- Safety Auger Guard
- Crown Adjustment
- Pivot Leg Plate
- End Jack Swing Outs
- Power Up/Down Legs
- Drag Pan & Burlap Drag

For more information on how you can customize the configuration of your BDF6048 or other bridge deck paving machines, contact us by calling 870.236.7751 or email us at equipmentsales@alleneng.com.